

We offer Treatment Packages, which include FREE additional services/products:

1. Save you time and money and do not have an expiration date.
2. Keep you more committed to your treatments, resulting in better treatment outcomes.
3. Are refundable anytime for any reason within 30 days, minus the free services/products.
4. Can be shared with another household member, leading to higher discounts.

As of 3-1-19: Acupuncture follow-up treatments: $115 billed to insurance, minus $32 discount per treatment if the payment is received at time of service: $83 per treatment. Further savings available in form of additional free services/products when purchasing treatment packages.

For reduced rate treatments based on income please see page 2.

Introduction package for new Acupuncture Clients: Initial Intake plus 5 treatments: $387 (One time only) First visit due: $138, second visit due: $249 (equals $387) to receive discount for package price. Initially we need to establish your rate of response to the Acupuncture treatments. Often we recommend to new clients to come in twice per week for 2 weeks, then we evaluate their progress.

Re-Exams Re- Exams are provided every 8 to 12 visits, where we spend extra time with our clients, review clinical progress, make additional treatment suggestions, re-prioritize our care focus if indicated, review the current treatment plan and make changes if indicated. This is appropriate and necessary, as well as expected by insurance companies to be sure that the services are creating the expected outcome. The client does receive an Acupuncture treatment on the date of their Re-Exam, the Re-Exam charges are in addition to the charges for the Acupuncture.
$60 for this office visit billed to insurance (an additional co-pay or co-insurance may apply), $42 if the client does not have insurance and the payment is received at time of service. The Re-Exams are also part of our Product and Service Package, lowering the price to $38.40. Sliding Fee Scale or Financial Hardship Re-Exams are $30.
